A picnic party will be given tonight at Gage park by a group of friends. Those in the party will be Mr. and Mrs. Beryl Johnson, Miss Grace Gaines, Marian Dana, Miss Corinne Ripley, Dr. Carl Menninger, Mr. Edwin Menninger and Mr. Glenn Logan. Miss Ripley will leave Saturday for a lake trip to the north, and the picnic is a farewell party for her.

Mrs. Arthur White was hostess at an informal luncheon for Mr. White's sisters, Miss Sally White and Miss Rose Ethel White, who are returning to their home in the east, after a trip to California.

A matinee dancing party was given today at 4 o'clock by the Y. Y. Z. girls of the high school, in honor of Miss Lucile Maguire, of Kansas City, a former Topeka high school girl. The party was a surprise to Miss Maguire and was given at the home of Miss Helen Rutledge.

The company included: Miss Maguire, Miss Marian Dana, Miss Virginia Kitchell, Miss Ramona Kirkpatrick, Miss Maym Parsons, Miss Helen Bennett, Miss Florence Fritton, Miss Faith Young, Miss Dorothy Bair, Miss Esther Grandon, Miss Ruth Tandy, Miss Augusta Taylor, Miss Gladys 'Oran, Miss Ethel Lindell, Miss Edna Anton, Miss Violet Matthews, Miss Dorothy Bradbury and Miss Anna Beal.

The dancing programs were decorated in gold, the design and work being done by Miss Parsons.

A party of Topeka people expect to go north soon to remain the rest of the summer. Those in the party will be Mr. and Mrs. Frank Grimes, Mr. and Mrs. V. B. Kistler and Mr. and Mrs. Clement Smith. They will leave next week, and will go to Topeka, Mich., for a few weeks. Other Topeka people at Topeka are the F. W. Watson family, who have a lake-side home there and occupy it during the summer season each year.

The Willis A. Coston home has been under quarantine for measles. Little Mary Louise Theis, the granddaughter of Doctor and Mrs. Coston, was the afflicted one, but she has now recovered, and the quarantine is raised.

An overland trip by automobile is planned by Doctor and Mrs. McVey. They expect to leave one day next week for Springfield and Jacksonville, Ill., the old home of Doctor McVey. Doctor and Mrs. McVey's daughters, Miss Maude McVey and Miss Pauline McVey, will go with them, and the party will also be accompanied by Mr. Victor Blakely.

A woman just home from Kansas City tells me that she saw a certain bachelor who used to live here and is now making his home in Kansas City, dining at the Ruble ch., with an extremely beautiful woman. This man always has a taste for nick-nacks, and in Topeka we all remember how he about had his choice of two or three nice looking women. His good luck pursues him, and handsome women still eat out of his hand.

Miss Ann Ruth Covey and Mr. Charles O. Wilson were married Thursday at noon. A wedding breakfast was given following the ceremony. At home at 420 West Seventh street.

The N. Y. X. girls of the high school class of January '13, will give a party Friday, August 18, in compliment to Miss Helen Rutledge, whose engagement to Mr. Joe Slaughter has been announced.

Mrs. Walter Cannon will entertain her sewing club next Wednesday.

Mrs. H. S. Putney gave a luncheon Thursday for Miss Sally White and Miss Rose Ethel White of Baltimore, Md., who are visiting their brother, Mr. Arthur White, on their way east after a trip to California. Covers were placed for the Misses White, Mrs. Hinkle Guy, Mrs. Frank Bassett, Mrs. Arthur White, Miss Elizabeth Gregory and Mrs. Putney.

The June, 14, class of the high school had a picnic party Wednesday night at Gage park. Those present were: Mayme H. Parsons, Zelma Tracy, Dorothy Bair, Margaret Rust, Blanch Botham, Louise Brown, Betty Burroughs, Grace Carlson, Virginia Kitchell, Ethel Palmer, Pearl Peterson, Pauline Sanders, Dorothy Richardson, Esther Grandon, Grace Smith, Bessie Poth, Marian Dana, Lucille Maguire of Kansas City, Faith Young, Helen Hollar, Vera Mase, Esther Lindell, Florence Wolf, Anna Crane, Paul Young, Leon Edwards, Curtis Nettles, John Troxel, Kenneth McCandless, Charles Euwer, Safford Thacher, Harry Bennett, Eldon Shoup, Seymour Harper, Earl Wood, Carl Hirschberger, Francis Stone, Lyman King, Cetus Buehrer, Homer Davis, Raymond Long, Ronald McCord and Arthur Saville.

Isn't it queer what things will influence voters in making up their ballot. One woman says that she voted for a certain candidate because his opponent has sent her about a half dozen letters which she always found in her mailbox when she was looking for a letter from her sister. Her prejudice against that candidate bit in so deeply that she cast her vote for the other man in whose success she had not the slightest interest.

Miss Gladys McLean and Mr. J. T. Merritt, of Dunkard, N. Y., were married Thursday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's brother, Lieut. W. F. McLean, and Mrs. McLean. The bride was attended by Miss Mary Kanode as maid of honor. The service was read by Canon George M. Geisel. Mr. and Mrs. Merritt have left for Dunkard, where Mr. Merritt has a ranch.

Miss Jennette Ortmann entertained at a line party Thursday evening for her guests, Miss M. de Moore of Lawrence, Kan. Those present were: Miss Maude Moore, Miss Doris Starke, Miss Edith Starke, Miss Faye Inskeep, Miss Dulce Long, Miss Mary Miller, Miss Lillian Ortmann, Miss Jennette Ortmann.

Orange Cream Layer Cake

By CONSTANCE CLARKE.

It is at this season of the year that the mind of the thoughtful, hospitable turns toward the cake, box, and the question of how to find something that will be both good and unusual. This is a delicious cake.

Take one cup of butter, work it to a creamy consistency with two cups of powdered sugar, after which add by degrees three cups of sifted flour, one-half cup of sweet milk, and the whites of eight eggs beaten to a stiff froth. After working the mixture for fifteen minutes, add two tablespoonsful of baking powder and one of almond-flavoring. Bake in layer cake pans, fill with orange filling, and spread with orange glaze.

FILLING.—Put one spoonful of cornstarch in two spoonfuls of water and, when it is dissolved, add the beaten yolk of one egg and stir until smooth. Place the juice of two oranges and the grated rind of one of them with one tablespoonful of water on the fire, and when the liquid boils add the egg mixture. Cook for three minutes, add the slightly beaten whites of the egg just before taking the filling from the fire, and cool partly before using.

ORANGE GLAZE.—Put the finely chopped peel of an orange into a stew-pan, and pour over it two tablespoonfuls of boiling water, cover the pan and let the contents remain till cool; then add the juice of the orange and strain through a piece of muslin. Take one and a half cups of icing sugar, and mix with it three tablespoonfuls and a half of the liquor prepared as above; stir over the fire until it is warm, and then use. Decorate the cake with fresh orange slices.

To-morrow—Informal Sunday Night Supper Table.

OUR FASHION LETTER

HER TRAVEL TOGS

Can't Stay at Home With Equipment This Year.

Newest Coats Are Tobacco Brown and Peacock Blue.

TOILETTE CASE LIKE SUITCASE

Complete Beauty Parlor Toted Around by Millady.

Wardrobe Trunks Reach Pinnacle of Excellence.

BY MARGARET MASON.
(Written for the State Journal.)

Lucia travels all the while; She's never seen at home; Her travel togs become her so. She simply has to roam.

New York, Aug. 4.—Traveling made becoming! That's what the stunning new travel togs do for the busy little globe trotters. Hats, coats, veils, bags and boxes, they are all smart as smart can be.

The newest travel coats come in striking shades of tobacco brown, mustard, peacock blue and emerald green and hang voluminously full from narrow shoulders or narrow yokes. High patch pockets are much in evidence and buttons big as silver dollars or even doughnuts.

Of a certainty, if your coat is peacock blue your toilette case too must be that hue. These fascinating receptacles, when of the colored leather, are built like small suitcases, but the regular traveling bag shaped ones are all of either dark leather or pig skin and then lined to match your color scheme.

It was easier to enumerate what these Pandora treasure boxes do not contain than what they do. Everything pertaining to a fastidious feminine toilette is there. The complete beauty parlor to be toted at ease by a red cap and be at your service by land or sea as first aids in your capture of all nationalities of male.

There are of course hair brush, comb and mirror; clothes brush, hat brush and nail brush; a complete manicure outfit, an electric curling iron, soap box, tooth brush case and innumerable boxes and jars for cold-cream, powder, rouge, scents and lotions.

Button hook, shoe horn and hairpin box also lurk in ambush on the inside.

These articles are most adequate in ivory monogrammed or striped in black or gold, but an edition de luxe is exquisite in crystal gilt and enamel.

There are the complete sewing kits too in either leather or cretonne covered boxes so that you may darn, or tuck in route and take the famous little stitch in time that saves nine.

For the thrifty traveler who loves to put out a wash in the privacy of her stateroom or hotel domicile, there is a three pound electric iron that will turn upside down and let you heat water on it. It is made with a hole in one end where you may heat your curling iron and it all packs up in a small velvet bag of nine by seven inches.

For further aid to the traveling laundress come in either little silk or leather covered envelope cases one half dozen tiny clothes pins, a stout cord wound on a flat card and two glass headed thumb tacks whereon to hang your line.

The wardrobe trunks have reached a pinnacle of excellence which makes them, with their hangers and drawers, as complete as your own closet and dresser at home; and the hat boxes of leather with handles so that they may be carried on your way, or the larger hat trunks fitted with padded head rests for six or eight hats and a tray for your hatpins, gloves and veils, makes going away quite as convenient and comfortable as staying at home, and twice as fascinating.

Discolored or Spotty Skin Easily Peeled Off

The freckling, discoloring or roughening to which most skins are subject at this season, may readily be gotten rid of. Mercolized soap, spread lightly over the face before retiring and removed in the morning with soap and water, completely peels off the disfigured skin. Get rid of the wax at any druggist's. There's no more effective way of banishing tan, freckles or other untoward defects. Little skin particles, each day, are the process itself doesn't even temporarily mar the complexion, and one soon acquires a brand new, spotless, glowing beautiful face.

Wrinkles caused by weather, worry or illness, are best treated by a simple solution of powdered ascorbic acid, once dissolved in one-half pint witch hazel. Rubbing the face in this produces a marvelous transformation.—Advertisement.
